Imperial Summer School:

(DEADLINE CLOSED REOPEN IN 2025) - could be used for next year as they have year 11 and 12 programmes.

About our summer schools

Our summer programmes run between May and August, providing immersive STEM experiences for students from underrepresented backgrounds who attend a non-fee-paying school or college in the UK.

All our programmes are fully funded by the College (and our partners), meaning they are free for successful applicants. Our programmes are typically oversubscribed, and applicants must meet at least one of our eligibility criteria to be considered.

Applications for our summer 2024 programmes will open on 9 January. You can learn more about our programmes, including the application deadlines, using the links below.

Talks and Taster Days

Year 12

Year 12 students should be engaging with the next steps by researching and by looking at the following programmes and taster sessions.

To help you decide which course you would like to study at university, or if you are considering your future career path, there are many talks and taster days which take place throughout the year.

Attending such talks or events during Year 12 or at the beginning of Year 13 may also prove helpful when writing your personal statement.

Please find below a selection of websites where you can find details of talks, taster days and other careers information.

University Of London:

Taster courses for schools

Taster courses are designed for school students, usually in year 12, to get an insight into studying a particular subject or subject area at university.

They are one day or half day courses (some run slightly longer). They give you the opportunity to try out a variety of subjects.

This can benefit you in various ways:

Career planning: develop your career thinking and explore different options. Many job roles don't require specific degree subjects and you'll be able to explore how university can enhance your skills.

Subject: try out an area of study, including new ones that you haven't had the chance to study at school.

University study: sample university study, without commitment and free of charge.

Access to lecturers: hear from and be able to speak to subject experts.

London life: learn about life as a student in the capital.

Teaching: experience the different teaching methods used by university academics.

Extras: gain an insight into the additional facilities available, whilst meeting other students from across the UK.
