

Step 1: Using Determiners

Introduction

Which sentence makes sense?

My mum bought me an new doll and an umbrella for my birthday.

My mum bought me a new doll and an umbrella for my birthday.

Introduction

Which sentence makes sense?

My mum bought me an new doll and an umbrella for my birthday.

My mum bought me a new doll and an umbrella for my birthday.

Varied Fluency 1

Underline the determiners in the sentence below.

I like this salad more than that takeaway.

Varied Fluency 1

Underline the determiners in the sentence below.

I like this salad more than that takeaway.

Varied Fluency 2

Circle the determiner that is missing from the sentence below.

_____ people agree with me.

This

Many

A

Varied Fluency 2

Circle the determiner that is missing from the sentence below.

Many people agree with me.

This

Many

A

Varied Fluency 3

Would these nouns need 'a' or 'an' as their determiner?

_____ hairdryer

_____ shower

Varied Fluency 3

Would these nouns need 'a' or 'an' as their determiner?

 a hairdryer

 a shower

Varied Fluency 4

Circle the correct quantifying determiner for the sentence below.

Here are (few/some/less) apples.

Varied Fluency 4

Circle the correct quantifying determiner for the sentence below.

Here are (few/some/less) apples.

Application 1

Sort the determiners into the table below by deciding if they could be used before the given noun.

Could be used	Could not be used

Noun: elephant

Possible determiners: a, an, the, my, your, some, four

Application 1

Sort the determiners into the table below by deciding if they could be used before the given noun.

Could be used	Could not be used
an the my your	a some four

Noun: elephant

Possible determiners: a, an, the, my, your, some, four

Application 2

Write a different noun for each of the following determiners:

Quantifying determiners:

some _____

three _____

Possessive determiner:

his _____

Application 2

Write a different noun for each of the following determiners:

Quantifying determiners:

some dogs

three houses

Possessive determiner:

his spaceship

Reasoning 1

Find and explain the determiner which is used incorrectly in the passage below.

I waited for me turn in the race. When it was time, I stood up and walked to the starting line.

Reasoning 1

Find and explain the determiner which is used incorrectly in the passage below.

I waited for me turn in the race. When it was time, I stood up and walked to the starting line.

'Me' should be 'my' because...

Reasoning 1

Find and explain the determiner which is used incorrectly in the passage below.

I waited for me turn in the race. When it was time, I stood up and walked to the starting line.

'Me' should be 'my' because it is a possessive determiner and the turn in the race belongs to the person writing.